

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Thursday, July 21, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, on Thursday, July 21, paid a one-day working visit to the West African nation of Niger. The Liberian leader and President Issoufou Mahamadou held face-to-face conversation in a brotherly climate followed by a working session extended to the delegations accompanying them. The working session focused on in-depth review of bilateral relations between the two countries and exchange of view on African and other international issues.