

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES – Tuesday, July 19, 2016

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, on Tuesday, July 19, challenged Liberians to develop the values of hard work and patriotism in the ongoing reconstruction of Liberia while urging the citizenry to be disciplined and exhibit ethical work habits that will contribute to the ongoing development initiatives of Liberia. The Liberian leader made the statement when she addressed journalists at the Roberts International Airport (RIA) upon her arrival from Kigali, Rwanda, where she attended the 27th Ordinary Session of AU Assembly.