

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAILY ACTIVITIES - Saturday, July 24, 2015

- President Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, in continuation of activities marking this year's Independence Anniversary, dedicated a number of projects in and around Barclayville, Grand Kru County, a co-host of this year's celebration.

Development projects dedicated included the 12th Judicial Circuit, the traditional chief's residence, a computer laboratory at the Barclayville Central High School, the rehabilitated and extended Barclayville City Hall and the 86 kilometer Barclayville – Kanweaken road. She also dedicated a number of presidential hand pumps constructed around Barclayville and a newly constructed home for Peace Corps volunteers assigned in the county.

Though she was unable to visit all parts of the county to dedicate development projects, proxies were designated to dedicate the completed projects across the county.

Later in the afternoon, President Sirleaf, along with members of the diplomatic corps, met and interacted with children of the county.
