

Highlights of President's Daily Activities
Thursday, July 31, 2014

- Liberia's new Ambassador to the People's Republic of China, His Excellency McKinley Thomas took leave of President Sirleaf at her office as he takes up his new assignment in Beijing. He succeeds His Excellency Jarjar Kamara, who now serves as Ambassador at-interim in Brussels, Belgium.
- As chair of the National Task Force on Ebola, President Sirleaf and other members of the team held its third meeting in the C. Cecil Dennis Auditorium. Discussions centered around how to fight the deadly Ebola virus which was increasingly claiming the lives of over 100 persons in the country and spreading.
- In the afternoon, President Sirleaf held a meeting with Inter Faith Council, a combination of Christian and Muslim leaders, on the role that they can/must also play in the fight against the Ebola virus raging havoc on the population.